

	Page.
The commissioners directed to publish a list of all lotteries authorized by law which have not been drawn, arranging them in the order in which they passed—1817, ch. 154, sec. 6,	674
The said lotteries to be drawn under the direction of the commissioners, in the order as classed, except those before excepted—1817, ch. 154, sec. 6,	674
If the managers so first entitled shall not within two months present a scheme, their right to draw shall be forfeited—1817, ch. 154, sec. 6,	674
Same, if after approval the managers shall not within four months require the commissioners to proceed—1817, ch. 154, sec. 6,	674
The managers, on such forfeiture, to return the money, and the commissioners to give notice by advertisement to the managers of the next lottery entitled—1817, ch. 154, sec. 6,	674
On the omission of the managers of the next lottery, a like forfeiture to take place, and the commissioners to notify the managers of the next, and so on in succession—1817, ch. 154, sec. 6,	674
Duties of the commissioners in examining numbers, blanks and prizes, care of the wheels, &c. and in prescribing the days and hours, but to be finished within six months—1817, ch. 154, sec. 7, p. 675 ; sec. 8,	676
The commissioners not to be concerned in any lottery, nor interested in any ticket, under the penalty therein mentioned—1817, ch. 154, sec. 9,	676
Where managers are authorized to raise a sum of money by more lotteries than one, and they propose a scheme purporting to raise a less sum, they shall not draw any other till all others have had an opportunity to be drawn—1817, ch. 154, sec. 10,	676
No person authorized to divide tickets, and sell shares, without permission of the managers, and having the shares signed by their authority, and the tickets cancelled, under the penalty therein mentioned—1817, ch. 154, sec. 11,	676
Nothing herein contained to prevent the appointment of any manager of any lottery now authorized as lottery commissioner—1817, ch. 154, sec. 11,	676
Oath to be taken by the commissioners—1817, ch. 154, sec. 12,	676
Same by their clerk—1817, ch. 154, sec. 13,	677
Penalty on managers, or other persons, for proposing or publishing any scheme of a lottery, or attempting to draw the same contrary to the provisions of this act—1817, ch. 154, sec. 14,	677
The commissioners required annually to devise the scheme of not more than two lotteries to be drawn in the city of Baltimore, and to prepare and dispose of the tickets, &c. and proceed to draw the same—1817, ch. 154, sec. 16,	678
The commissioners to transmit to the treasurer of the western shore a copy of the scheme, and in the sale of tickets to take the notes, &c. in his name as such, and transmit them to him, and pay over to to him all moneys received—1817, ch. 154, sec. 17,*	678

* See 1825, ch. 221.